

it. As she read on, it was confirmed in 1 Corinthians 14:11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

Autumn even found confirmation about an interpreter. 1 Corinthians 14:13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret. She continued to read 1 Corinthians 13:1 Though I speak with the tongues of men AND OF ANGELS, and have not love, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. The more she read the clearer things became. A tongue of man is simply the language that he speaks. The language of angels is what is said and done on our behalf.

Autumn turned her attention over to Acts 2:1-6 And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. 2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. 3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. 4 And they were filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. 5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. 6 Now when this was noised abroad the multitude came together and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in is own language. "Oh my goodness!" that sealed it for her, and the final nail in the coffin was in verse 8 And how hear we every man in our own TONGUE, wherein we were born?

She began to feel a little sad for all those people who were speaking in the so called heavenly tongue and doing back-flips in that church, because they were being deceived. They are babbling a prayer that does not even reach the ceiling, and there isn't one person being edified by such nonsense. How can an individual's faith be expressed when there is clearly no understanding?

1 Corinthians 14:33 states that GOD is not author of confusion, but what Autumn recalls of her visit to the church was complete and utter confusion, all the muttering, babbling, spitting and coughing all in the name of speaking in a HEAVEN LANGUAGE to GOD. The scripture clearly outlines in Matthew 6:5-8 what you must do in order for your prayers to be heard by GOD. And in 1 Corinthians 14:2-22 It speaks about interpreting, to those who speak a different "earthly" language.

Yet man continues to manipulate the scriptures for his own carnal and personal gain.

Autumn wrote her article after she had finished all of the research. She changed the title to "Faith, the Power of Speaking in Tongues", and it was subtitled "What you are not saying." Instead of selling it to a magazine she decided to distribute it to the church she visited. The hope was that congregants would open their eyes and close their mouths.

SAY WHAT?

2 Timothy 2:15 - Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

SAY WHAT?

There was a journalist that traveled all over the world. She spent many months in foreign countries reporting about the different cultures all over the world. Her name is Autumn Sadler. Autumn is very educated having received multiple degrees from Ivy League schools. However, what she encountered while visiting a church would change her life forever.

Autumn had just come to the United States after spending many months living in Spain. Although she was a linguist, she had an interpreter with her at all times, as to avoid mistakes. She knew that a mistranslation could alter her story or article completely. Seeing that she spoke English well, there was no need for an interpreter when she moved to the United States.

The article she was writing was about faith and how one manifests their faith. Over a period of time she would visit several churches and interview several people for her research. Her first visit was to a large urban church, when she got there the service had already began. The music was loud and exuberant. The congregation seemed to be very vocal and in harmony with the minister as they responded to him with such enthusiasm whenever he would ask them a question.

“Has the Lord been good to you?.” The minister screeched

“Yes, yes, yes” the congregation replied.

“Awww, if He’s been good you otta say Amen” the minister commanded

“Amen!!!” the congregation screeched.

“Da, da, da, da,” There was an explosion of music. The drums were being played louder, the guitar was plucked harder and the praise singers belted out a melodious sound, it seems as if it were staged, and geared toward pumping-up the congregation and getting them excited.

Autumn was astonished at all that she saw. There were people doing back flips. Two children began doing an interpretive dance, and at one time it seemed as if every member was out of their seat, just running up and down through the aisle of the church. Then out of no where a female congregant began to utter a noise, it was as if she was speaking another language. “Ah, ah, la rumba, kee, kee, zoom, zoom, yaba daba, doo,” Then all of a sudden, another congregant began to speak in that same strange language, then another and another and another, soon, almost every member of the church was speaking in this foreign language. Autumn’s attention was then drawn to the balcony, where still more people were speaking this new language.

Autumn pulled the sleeve of the gentleman beside her, getting his attention as she asked in a quiet voice, “Excuse me sir, what is this language that they are speaking? I’ve traveled all over the world and I have never heard anything like it.

“Oh, it’s a heavenly tongue spoken to GOD” the gentleman answered eagerly.

“What did you say?” Autumn said losing her composure. She did not bring an interpreter along with her, and she was wondering how in the world she was going to write her article.

“Will there be someone to translate soon, and how will they know what all these people are saying? They’re talking all at once.” She asked, almost out of breath.

“Oh, no, no, you don’t understand there is no need for an interpreter; they are speaking directly to GOD, they speak in tongues to confuse the devil.” He answered. The gentleman must have seen the confused look on Autumn’s face because he went on to explain.

“Listen child, speaking in tongues is a gift, it shows you have faith,” the gentleman answered. And I guess to make his point, he started speaking in this unknown tongue.

Autumn went home dismayed and extremely confused; she speculated all night on what this language was that the gentleman was speaking about? She has believed in GOD all her life. She reads the bible, and goes to church on a regular basis. She has as much faith as any one she knows, but, she does not speak this language, this HEAVENLY LANGUAGE, and before visiting that church has never even heard of such a language. Autumn began to research this topic for herself; she started with the good book, the BIBLE, because she did not want to miss out on any communication with GOD.

She opened her Bible to Mark 16:17 - And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; IN NEW TONGUES! Perhaps the people at the church were on to something she thought.

She then turned her attention to 1Corinthians 14:1-2 Follow after love, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. 14:2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto GOD: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. Hmm, maybe the gentleman in church was right. But as she continued to read on Paul is saying something totally different in 1Corinthians 14:6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine? “That would make sense,” exclaimed Autumn as she thought back to the church service she had attended. It was impossible for anyone to understand that HEAVENLY LANGUAGE, so it would stand to reason that no one was edified by
